Until Proven Innocent smothers any lingering doubts that in this country the presumption of innocence is dead, dead, dead." ? John Grisham "This compelling narrative dramatizes the fearsome power of unscrupulous police and prosecutors to wreck the lives of innocent people, especially when the media and many in the community rush to presume guilt.

Until Proven Innocent: Political Correctness and the ...

Until Proven Innocent takes us through the whole incident detail by detail, leaving no doubt as to who the guilty parties really are - the District Attorney, the Durham police, the local NAACP, politicians, the wacky "group of 88" Duke professors and, egregiously, the Duke administration including its president Richard Brodhead who, in pandering to the political correctness, left three accused students to face ruined lives and decades in prison.
